Froelich is valedictorian, Avila-Valencia is salutatorian at Fontana High School

By FONTANA HERALD NEWS

What is it like to be a valdictorian?

"It's a lot of work," said Laura Froelich, who was chosen for that prestigious honor at for her perseverance and dedication during her years at Fontana High School.

Froelich said she studied a lot, but she also enjoyed participating in many activities at Fohi. She was a member of the school's choir for four years, and she was also involved in the Anime Club and the Fohi Fighting Cancer group.

Following the annual Bernice Knobloch Senior Awards Night at Fohi on Tuesday, Froelich said that graduation day would provide her with her "greatest memory" of the school. (An article on the Steeler commencement will appear in next week's edition of the Herald News.)

Froelich will be attending the University of Redlands in the fall and will be studying psychology.

Karla Avila-Valencia, who was named the Steeler salutatorian, also put a lot of time and effort into her academics at Fohi.

"It's been hard. I stayed up late at night many times, but it got me where I am now," she said.

Avila-Valencia, who said she liked being involved in track and field at Fohi, will be majoring in history at Cal State San Bernardino.
