SING, PLAY, AND CREATE

Explore some new ways to use children's literature and poetry, abstract art and cartoons, ribbon sticks and bouncing balls, canons and traditional games, to create fresh ideas for the new school year.

2 Saturday, October 24, 2009
National Clinician
Donna Massello-Chiacos

RHYTHM & RHYME? ANYTIME!

This workshop includes poems and rhymes, singing games, rhythm pieces, and dances appropriate for early elementary. We will use activities that foster and develop beat competency. Materials will focus on elemental rhythm, building bricks, patterns, phrases and pieces, and rhythmic ostinati.

3 Saturday, February 6, 2010
National Clinician
Jon Brady

FREE PLAY, THE CIRCLE, STORY AND DANCE!

With an early childhood focus, Jon will share many activities that have proven successful while working with the young child.

4 Saturday, March 13, 2010
National Clinician
James Harding

HIGH AND LOW, FAST AND SLOW, HEEL AND TOE!

The vibrant relationship between movement and music is at the heart of the Orff Schulwerk approach. James will lead us through activities featuring drama, improvisation, choreography and simple group dances.
