HIGHLIGHTS

In August 2016, FUSD's newest school, the Dolores Huerta International Academy opened its doors. DHIA offers a K-5 International Program/Dual Language Immersion magnet program that provides a world class education to all students.

Three FUSD schools have been recognized by the state for successful efforts in boosting student excellence and shrinking behavior issues. Truman Middle School was awarded silver certification and Date Elementary and Jurupa Hills High Schools received bronze certification from the California PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports) Coalition.

In May 2016, 277 FUSD graduating seniors from our five comprehensive high schools earned state Seals of Biliteracy for proficiency in speaking, reading, and writing one or more foreign language.

Jurupa Hills High School offers a two-year International Baccalaureate (IB) program. Those who successfully complete the program receive an additional IB diploma recognized, and respected internationally. There are currently over 50 juniors and seniors in the program. In May of 2016, the Jurupa Hills High School senior class received 3 IB diplomas and 14 certificates (course candidates).
