I would like to share regarding your Induction experience? Are there any program modifications that you

Unlike last year, it felt more like a reflection and professional development and less like filling out lots of paperwork. The field experience allowed us to observe veteran teachers. This was amazing and gave us a visual and true experience about the sessions this year led to a much more enjoyable and relevant experience than attending all required PD sessions.

It was much more helpful than the previous year. Feel it was more directly focused on my personal needs and wants.

It was great to see what our district does for its teachers, provide them with free induction program, as the first two years of experience. I felt that he made sure I was always prepared and informed of what was expected and necessary.

One of my keys to success was not only my BTSA mentor, but also the frequent support of the TOA's like Ms. [Name].

My first regarding the organization of the program. I liked the choice we had this year to go to different field experiences and I love how they are trying to make it more beneficial every year. I personally think I have benefited from the transition from special education to general education, it may benefit to have more inservice opportunities and resources.

The overall outcome of the two year program. My mentor was dedicated and went out of her way to help me meet ut teaching certain lessons, differentiated grouping and classroom management & structure.

s are extremely stressful, and you are learning who you are as an educator. The BTSA induction program

Scott and Mrs. Bariche. I believe that the TOA's are under utilized by both 1st year teachers and BTSA r ad the greatest mentor possible (Melanie) and that she is an incredible teacher and person who helped i mentors. Teaching 1st year teachers to overlap both the BTSA mentor and the available TOA's should be required to maximize teacher efficacy and prevent burn out. That support web allowed me to spread m ly wings in my second year and have a very strong sense of confidence and foundation in my skills.
