-Steeler Sports Update: Tomorrow, our girls soccer and boys basketball teams travel up the mountain to Rim of the World. Our girls basketball team has a home game against Summit. Support your fellow Steeler because that's what a Steeler does.

-Spring Semester Dual Enrollment begins Monday January 30th. Make sure to login to your class on Monday - or you risk being dropped. See Elias in B104 if you have questions! We will have a Chaffey college Counselor on site, Wednesday January 25th. See Elias in B104 to make an appointment.

-Attention Seniors: Voting for the Yearbook Senior Superlatives, the best of list, has started. Examples include, Best Dressed, Best Personality, Most likely to be famous, etc. Please see the Forms link in TEAMS to submit your votes. Deadline is Feb. 3.

-Attention juniors and seniors: planning is underway for Powderpuff 2023. Permission slips are available in the Steeler Store, and you can begin ordering jerseys. Coaches will be reaching out to players regarding practices. You can order a jersey even if you're not playing so you can look super cute if you want. The game will take place on Fohi Friday, March 17, and is free and open to any and all to come and watch.

-Looking for some clothes? well good news the thrifty steelers community closet and thrift store is open today at 2:10 in PL 52 so come by and shop for some new clothes for free. Yes, you heard me for free so don't miss out on this opportunity

-And finally, Steelers, tomorrow's Fohi Friday carries with it a little bit of extra meaning...about 500 Future Steelers will be on campus to get their first glimpse into our Fohi Family...we've always talked about Fohi Friday being a celebration and the message we send with the simple act of putting on that maroon shirt in the morning, the message is sent to every Steeler, past, present, and future...tomorrow will be some Future Steelers who will officially be part of our family in a few months...what message will they see tomorrow?...own your role as part of the Fohi Family and Live Maroon today, all day, every day, right here at...Fohi
