

Donna Rae (van der Kamp) Witt

Nov. 21, 1937-Feb. 29, 2016

Donna grew up in Missouri, came to California and married Harry Witt. They had three kids, Ginger, Jordan, and Jacqueline. She worked as a teacher's aide at West Randall Elementary School in Fontana. She was active in PTA, Girl Scouts, and 4-H while raising her family. She loved to cook, read, and crochet, and loved being surrounded by family and friends.

Donna was preceded in death by her parents, Derk and Thelma van der Kamp, and husband, Harry.

She is survived by her sister, Opal, and children Ginger Witt, Jordan (Tammie) Witt, and Jacqui (Chris) Cloutier. She leaves four grandchildren, Christian (Amanda) Cloutier, Jodi (Steven) Carbett, Mindy Hernández (Julie Orozco), and Stacey (Steven) Samaro; and three great-grandchildren, Ronald, Zachary and Austin.

A memorial service will take place at Green Acres Mortuary in Bloomington, on Friday, March 11 at 5 p.m. Donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association in lieu of flowers.
