

In Memory of

James Robert Hill

February 3, 1940 - March 10, 2016

Jim was born on February 3, 1940 in Columbia, TN to Robert & Sally Hill. He was raised in Columbia until he enlisted in the Army at the age of 17. He was stationed in Germany.

Jim moved to California in 1965. He worked at various Dairies and Stater Bros. for a few years. That is where he met his future wife Nancy. He operated the Exxon Service station on the corner of Sierra and Valley Blvd. That's when he became heavily involved with the Orange Show Speedway in San Bernardino. He sponsored a number of cars at the track. At one time he was a track official, track photographer, and had the souvenir stand. He also worked as a tool salesman for CTS tools and Fontana Unified School District until March of '89 when he had his first 2 of 3 heart attacks. Then he started working car cruises. He was very proud to have been at the Veteran's car show at the Jerry L. Pettis hospital that raised money for vets. He worked all 22 years of the show.

He was preceded in death by his mother, father, and two of his brothers Gene & Terry. He is survived by his loving wife of 47 years, Nancy, his sons Loren David Hill of Los Angeles and Bobby Hill, his brother Don of Nashville, TN. The two loves of his life his granddaughter's Alyssa Marie in Los Angeles and Lindsay Anne in Canonsburg, PA, and Lee Childress, nephew who took care of Jim the last couple of years and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins in Tennessee.
