

Tyrone M. Dennett

October 7, 2016

Tyrone M. Dennett passed away at home with his loving family members on October 7, 2016. He was born in Springdale Utah to Virginia Brooksby and Wesley Dennett on October 31, 1938. He was the first of six children born to Virginia and Wesley Dennett. He was married to Lynette Davis on September 17, 1982 in the St. George temple. He spent his childhood going to school, church, and working with his family on the family farm in Springdale Utah. He loved climbing the majestic mountains of Zion National Park but most of all loved playing with family and friends.

He attended grade school in Springdale Utah, and graduated Valedictorian at Hurricane High School. His dad always told him he was a professional student. He attended 11 different colleges and universities, he loved to learn! After countless sleepless nights and hard work, he obtained his PhD in Mathematics and Science with Minors in the Arts and Archeology.

He served a mission in the West Central States Mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. At that time this included four states in the US. He served under the direction of President David O. McKay and often talked about how great his mission was and how spiritual and fulfilling it was for him.

Because he loved to learn, Tyrone had many different jobs in his life, but the ones he loved the most were working for his two brothers construction company and his life's passion, Teaching. He was always excited to see a student learn, and to know he was able to help them.

His hobbies were, Silversmith, Oil Painting, Fishing, Hunting, Lapidary, spending time with family doing Geology and Archeology. His favorite places were being out in the hills and mountains.

He is survived by his spouse Lynette Dennett Washington, Utah. Children: Tamara Jean Dennett Molina Beaverton, Oregon. Douglas Tyrone Dennett (Cristy) Washington, Utah. David Wesley Dennett St. George, Utah. Brett Arnold Dennett (Sheilee) Hurricane, Utah. Robert Craig Dennett
