Dear Parents, students, staff, and community.

As you will recall Fontana High School received an anonymous bomb threat and a threat to harm some specific staff members.

Today, after Fontana School Police conducted further investigations, a suspect was identified and was arrested. The investigation is ongoing and the Fontana Unified School District wishes to thank the Fontana School Police, the students, staff, and community for their patience and support.

All Fontana schools will be open and in session tomorrow Friday, November 21.

Thank you

Olivier Wong Ah Sun, Chief of Staff
