Social Media Post Almeria Middle School

Fontana, California: On Thursday, February 22, 2018, at 11:00 am, Almeria Middle School administrators contacted the Fontana School Police Department to report a social media posting that made reference to a school threat. Fontana School Police conducted a thorough investigation and determined the threat not to be credible. At no time were the students, staff or school administrators in any danger.

Almeria Middle School has been deemed safe and all regularly scheduled activities will continue. Out of an abundance of caution, school police and district safety officers will remain present on and around the school campus.
