School Lock-Down Canyon Crest Elementary School

Fontana, California: On Wednesday, February 21, 2018, at 9: 30 a.m., school administrators placed Canyon Crest Elementary School on lock down due to a law enforcement presence in the area. Fontana School Police arrived at the school campus and met with the law enforcement personnel. The investigation revealed that Riverside Police Department was conducting an investigation in the area. The suspect was taken into custody.

Canyon Crest Elementary School was placed on lock down as a precautionary measure, and at no time were the students, staff or school administrators in any danger.

Canyon Crest Elementary School has been deemed safe and the school campus was allowed to resume its regularly scheduled activities.
