School Threat

Fontana Unified School District

Fontana, California:

On Wednesday, February 21, 2018, at 10:53 pm, the Fontana School Police Department became aware of a potential threat at Fontana High School.

The Fontana School Police Department immediately conducted an investigation and during the early morning hours of Thursday, February 22, 2018, determined there was no credible threat.

At no time were any students, staff and school administrators placed in any danger. Fontana High School has been deemed safe and all regularly scheduled activities will continue. Out of an abundance of caution, we will continue to maintain a police presence on and around the school campus.
