What type of library book are you looking for?

Use the chart to determine which section of the library you should look in to locate your book.
THE FICTION SECTION

- Books in the form of novels that describe imaginary events and people.
- Tell stories to entertain the reader.
- Arranged ALPHABETICALLY by AUTHOR.
- Located near the windows.
FICTION CALL NUMBERS

• The library uses CALL NUMBERS to organize the books on the shelves.
• Just like we would use an address to visit you at your house, we use call numbers to find a book on a shelf.
• Fiction CALL NUMBERS are made up of FIC, which stands for fiction, and the FIRST 3 LETTERS of the Author’s LAST NAME.

Look for the Call Number sticker on the books:

Diary of a wimpy kid: Greg Heffley’s journal is a FiCtion book by Jeff KINney.

DESTINY DISCOVER can help you find call numbers:

All of the books by an author will have the SAME Call Number, so they will be on the shelf together.
Search the FICTION shelves like you read pages of a book. ALPHABETICAL order LEFT to RIGHT, and TOP to BOTTOM

Keep going until you find what you are looking for.
